

Hi Di

Unfortunately, our CEO Ian Narev won't be available for interview but I've provided the following for your information.

Commonwealth Bank policy precludes the Group from making political donations. Commonwealth Bank staff do attend some political events which cater for business observers and payments made to attend these events are disclosed to the relevant electoral commission.

This policy is publicly available on our website:

If you have any further questions regarding our policy on political donations, I'd be more than happy to arrange for someone to give you a call to answer any questions you have on background.
