

08-11-2025

Statement from spokesperson for Communications Minister Anika Wells:

The Government takes seriously our responsibility to protect Australians – particularly children and young people – from the harms of online gambling.

The ACMA is engaging with Disney+ to ensure its practices align with community expectations.