Dear

FOI REQUEST - REFERENCE NUMBER 2015-005

I refer to your request for access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (the FOI Act) in your email of 26 January 2015. Specifically, you have sought access to documents which contain the following information:

"The number of votes registered for each of the top 20 TripleJ hottest100 songs in 2015.

The number of votes registered for the song "shake it off" by Taylor Swift in the 2015 TripleJ hottest100."

I am authorised by the Managing Director under section 23 of the FOI Act to make decisions in respect of requests made under that Act. Following is my decision in relation to your request.

The ABC is specifically excluded from the operation of the FOI Act in relation to its program material by virtue of s7(2) and Part II, Schedule 2 of the FOI Act. 'Program material' for the purposes of that Part has been interpreted to mean:

"the program and all versions of the whole or any part of the program, any transmission broadcast or publication of the program, and includes a document of any content or form embodied in the program and any document acquired or created for the purpose of creating the program, whether or not incorporated into the completed program." [emphasis added]

In my view, the documents you have requested were created for the purposes of creating the triplejHottest100, a program that was broadcast on the ABC on 26 January 2015. Accordingly, they fall within the definition of 'program material' and the ABC is exempt from the operation of the FOI Act in relation to them. In those circumstances, a decision regarding access is not required.

If you are dissatisfied with this decision you can apply for Internal or Information Commissioner (IC) Review. You do not have to apply for Internal Review before seeking IC Review. Information about your review rights is attached.

Yours sincerely

Judith Maude
