Dance with Tom

A joyful celebration of cultural heritage

Set in the heart of the Yugambah Language Region, Dance with Tom is a lively, movement-rich experience for children that invites them into the world of First Nations culture, storytelling and language.

Blending live-action dance and hand-crafted animation, Dance with Tom introduces young viewers to traditional dances inspired by the land, animals and elements, as told through the eyes of Tom, our First Nations storyteller and dancer.

Tom is joined by adult and child dancers who learn the choreography together. The moves are expressive, inclusive and fun, offering versions that can be performed standing or seated, ensuring all children can participate and connect.

SEASON 3

Big adventures start with little green thumbs

Gardening Australia Junior is back, muddier, sillier and greener than ever! Our curious, glove-wearing, spade-wielding kids explore nature everywhere, from ancient forests to balconies. Each episode is packed with hands-on, family-friendly projects: build veggie instruments, create seed libraries, attract native birds and discover bush foods.

Plus, there's wildlife rescues, planting hacks and bubbling science in the Nature Lab.

Love gross stuff? Don't miss Poo Crew News where our kid reporters dish the dirt on stinky nature facts! With green-thumbed kids and grown-up hosts sharing knowledge (and bad jokes), it's time to get outside, get messy and grow something amazing!
