Beloved friends, including Wags the Dog, Dorothy the Dinosaur, Henry the Octopus, Captain Feathersword and Shirley Shawn the Unicorn, join The Wiggles for new playtime adventures - including a tea party, rock 'n' roll, a pretend wedding, circus skills, counting and alphabet games, and so much more.

Fizzy & Suds

A fabulously entertaining factual series for pre-schoolers that captures the bubbly thrill of a newly discovered passion

Remember when you were a kid and you loooooooved trains, dinosaurs, unicorns, spaceships or ballerinas?

Literally bursting with creative imagination, this entertaining factual series perfectly captures the bubbly thrill of newly discovered and intense passions that pre-schoolers feel during that certain age of their development.

Celebrating curiosity and out-of-the-box thinking, Fizzy & Suds is 'hosted' by two animated bubbles: Fizzy and giggly younger sibling Suds. Boundlessly inquisitive, the pair always find something new that captures their imagination, and every episode is carried along by their effervescent personalities.

Each episode is focused on one theme – from trucks and ballet to dinosaurs and pizza – and Fizzy and Suds let their imaginations run wild as explore the topic from every angle.

Every episode is also interspersed with clever interstitial sequences called 'Thought Bubbles'; these take an idea or concept and run with it – always characterised by humour and the joy of association.

But while Fizzy & Suds helps to explore all angles of each episode topic, children are front and centre – playing, exploring and creating – making it engaging, relatable and uplifting for pre-school audiences.

Gardening Australia Junior

Kids and their families are invited to explore the wondrous world of gardening

Packed with tips, tricks and activities that all kids will dig, Gardening Australia Junior features a host of keen junior gardeners who tackle a fun new project each episode. From constructing a compost cauldron to building a bee hotel and growing a rainbow veggie patch, there's plenty on offer for viewers to replicate at home. Projects in Series 2 include mini succulent gardens, recycled garbage gardens, beachside terrariums, cubby houses and manure experiments. Series 2 also dials up the fun with mini segments including Compost Critters, Wombat's Garden, and Mindful Moments.

Making it as relatable as possible, Gardening Australia Junior covers all manner of gardens, from the luxurious open country to the smallest balcony gardens – wherever something grows. Across the series, Gardening Australia Junior aims to inspire kids and families to roll up their sleeves and get out into the beauty and hard work of the garden.

Show Me The Honey

Five kids and their families learn everything there is to know about caring for their own bee colony

This delightful new competition format follows four families from across the UK as they embark on a beekeeping, honey-making adventure, and learn everything there is to know about caring for a hive.

In Show Me The Honey, BAFTA-winning presenter Maddie Moate and beekeeping expert Curtis Thompson put each 'team' through their paces at Bee School, where they will learn about topics such as the worker bees' 'waggle dance', insect vision and bee surveys. The teams will also face challenges – including building a solitary bee B&B, creating a pollen paradise, and designing logos for their honey.

'The Hive' – the show's very own social media platform – allows the teams to collaborate, share their experiences and bee keeping travails, ask questions of their beekeeping mentors and create their own beekeeping community.

The entertaining series captures all the ups and downs of beekeeping – from the joy of receiving the hives, bees and suits, through to the tribulations of maintaining the hives, up to its climactic final harvest – when the team who produces the best and sweetest tasting honey will be crowned 'Beekeepers of the Year'.

Judges include chef, Ainsley Harriott, who will be creating a celebratory dish with the winner's honey, before they take home a special Show Me The Honey trophy.

Planet Lulin

A coming-of-age sci-fi comedy that's out of this world!

Twelve-year-old Lulin's going through some little green changes – that's what happens when you have a human dad and an extra-terrestrial mum. But those little green changes are getting in the way of her success in SCI-BOG, the school science competition.

Lulin's dad, Ken, and her extra-terrestrial grandma, Ezme, try to help, but Lulin's the first ever human-Astoradian. No one knows what's going to happen next; especially not with her powers!

With her pals Henri and Spider by her side, Lulin's doing her best to rise to the challenge of SCI-BOG, but it's not that easy when she's blasting energy waves from her fingers, oozing green slime and getting scorch marks instead of pimples. On top of all that, intergalactic invaders are trying to track her down and send her to a void outside of the universe!

A vibrant, funny, live-action series for school-aged kids, Planet Lulin explores universal themes of self-discovery and belonging while navigating the cosmic shifts of adolescence and growing up.

Play School

Introducing generations of children to a world of imagination, creativity and learning through play

The longest running children's show in Australia, and the second longest running worldwide, Play School is an institution for generations of pre-schoolers. Daily appointment viewing, Play School is a half hour 'date' with favourite toys and presenters. Each week a new theme is explored, and each episode contains games, stories, songs and a variety of play activities. Many of the nation's culturally diverse, best and brightest creatives appear as regular presenters, as well as much-loved celebrity guests.

With its colour and humour, the show appeals strongly to pre-school audiences, while its 'learn through play' philosophy ensures it resonates with parents, grandparents and carers. Warm and timeless, Play School consistently delivers loyal audiences who engage with high frequency.

With a strong core philosophy, Play School has evolved and grown across the generations, always reflecting a modern, diverse society with a range of family situations and experiences – thus ensuring that it remains a pre-school touchstone for the vast majority of Australian children.

Broadcast multiple times daily, Play School has new content in constant development; in addition to the daily half hour programming, it encompasses many, standalone spin-off series including Art Time, Science Time, Story Time, Stop Look Listen, many 'Big Adventure' series and more – providing kids and families with ideas for projects to make and do at home.
