

AMP

“In previous years, the space on our upper floors has been used by the City of Sydney as a control point for the New Year’s Eve show. The ABC camera installation was part of that.

“We informed City of Sydney last year that AMP would be using the space for the next two years before we move to a new headquarters. Therefore, the arrangement wrapped up after last New Year’s Eve.

“Similarly, this is why we declined the ABC request.”