

Revenue and gaming machine growth for Catholic Clubs
Club name	Number of electronic gaming machines (2012) <sup>i</sup>	Number of electronic gaming machines (2011) <sup>ii</sup>	2011 Gaming revenue (millions) <sup>iii</sup>	2011 Gaming revenue as a percentage of club revenue <sup>iv</sup>	2010 Gaming revenue (millions)	Gaming revenue percentage increase from 2010 to 2011
Dooley's Lidcome Catholic Club	361	348	$44,339	81%	$35,928	18%
Dooley's Regents Park	20	33	nd <sup>v</sup>	n.d	n.d	n.d
Campbelltown Catholic Club	464	454	$28,710	58%	$25,039	13%
Club Central <sup>vi</sup> Hurstville	263	249	$24,763	93%	$21,382	14%
Club Central Menai	187	174	$9,057	70%	$8,534	6%
Liverpool Catholic Club	401	381	$28,000 <sup>vii</sup>	57%	$26,600 <sup>viii</sup>	n.d
Ashfield Catholic Club		86	$3,654	77%
The Catholic Club Ltd	33
TOTAL	1,696	1,639	$134,869		$117,483

<sup>i</sup> Source: NSW Office of Liquor Gaming and Racing, May 2012 Clubs data. Not publicly available

<sup>ii</sup>

<sup>iii</sup> Based on data on individual Club Annual Reports 2010/2011

<sup>iv</sup> Calculated as a percentage of 2011 total club revenues

<sup>v</sup> Gaming revenue for Regent's Park not separately disclosed in Dooley's Annual Report

<sup>vi</sup> The Illawarra Catholic Club is the registered corporate entity for both "Club Central Hurstville" and "Club Central Menai" as part of a "rebranding strategy" in 2009

<sup>vii</sup> Liverpool Catholic Club does not separately disclose Gaming Revenue. This information was provided by CEO John Turnbull

<sup>viii</sup> Estimate derived by discounting 2011 gaming revenue by 5%