

8-August-2025

Statement from a Seven spokesperson,

So many Australians can't afford to stretch their pay packets for things like the odd takeaway treat for their children and feel guilty doing so in the current cost of living crisis. This story gave them affordable options.