

18-July-2025

Response from a Seven spokesperson:

As soon as we were made aware of this matter, we removed the content from our digital platforms.

We are reviewing our processes around the verification of professional qualifications to ensure we continue to have robust and appropriate measures in place.

On this occasion, we did receive and review qualification documentation from this guest before his on-air appearance.