

Response from Seven spokesperson:

Seven employees are required to adhere to our social media and impartiality guidelines and are expected to seek approval from their direct reporting manager. Our people must declare any commercial partnerships in advance and any potential conflict of interest must be immediately disclosed.

Response from Nine Entertainment spokesperson:

We don't intend discussing commercial arrangements Nine makes with presenters - we are comfortable the audience recognise this campaign is a commercial one.