

Community Spirit Awards

Brisbane Community Spirit Awards – Collection Statement

The ABC is committed to protecting your privacy in the context of its journalism and program making.

The information we collect as part of the Brisbane Community Spirit Awards is not governed by our Privacy Policy. However, rest assured that your privacy, and that of your nominee, is important to us and that we will act in accordance with the ABC Code of Practice and the ABC Editorial Policies.

When you complete this online form, we collect basic personal information including your name, email address and telephone number, as well as the specific information that you provide as part of your nomination. This will include basic personal information about your nominee and other information about their contribution to their local community.

Some of the information we collect about you, or your nominee, may be sensitive information, including information about race or ethnicity, political opinions or affiliations, religious beliefs or affiliations, physical or mental health or sexuality. You, and we assume your nominee, consent to us collecting any sensitive information which you provide to us voluntarily. Your identity, and the identity of your nominee, will be treated as strictly confidential by the ABC, unless otherwise agreed, and any sensitive information you provide to us will not be published without express permission.

You don't have to give us all the information we ask you to provide, but this may limit how we interact with you, and the extent of your involvement in the Brisbane Community Spirit Awards.

The information we collect is used to:

- prepare and present ABC programs and content;
- investigate matters of public interest;
- contact you, and your nominee, as part of the Brisbane Community Spirit Awards; and
- manage our relationship with you and your nominee.

We use third-party service providers including technology service providers and marketing and promotions service providers. Some of our third-party service providers have servers located overseas including but not limited to New Zealand, Singapore, the UK, the Netherlands, Ireland, Israel, India, Canada and the USA. We require that our service providers have appropriate controls to protect personal information and that they only use personal information for authorised purposes.