FISK

COMEDY POWERHOUSE KITTY FLANAGAN IS BACK IN BROWN FOR SEASON 2 OF THE HUGELY SUCCESSFUL ENSEMBLE COMEDY FISK

Created, written and directed by – and starring – Flanagan as Helen Tudor-Fisk, the highly anticipated second season finds it's business as usual at suburban legal firm Gruber & Associates.

Helen's social skills haven't improved, but at least she's nailing it as a suburban wills and estates lawyer. So much so that Roz (Julia Zemiro) and Ray (Marty Sheargold) mistakenly entrust her with the presentation of their regular Q&A probate information night at the local library.

Meanwhile, Ray is shredding for a school reunion and everyone's favourite probate clerk/webmaster, George (Aaron Chen) finds himself overworked when he embarks on a new business venture.

A galaxy of comedic stars join the returning cast to up the ante on the laughs, and add to the appeal of this warm-hearted and quirky show. Guests include Glenn Robbins (Kath and Kim), Rob Sitch (Utopia), Denise Scott (Winners & Losers) and Broden Kelly (Aunty Donna's Big Ol' House of Fun).

As the nation's number one locally scripted show across all free-to-air* networks in 2021, Fisk scooped up a slew of awards for its first season.

Its second season has been equally beloved, and had an overnight audience of one million+ tuning in for the finale.
