

03-Aug-2026

Statement from a Meta Spokesperson:

"Our policies prohibit the advertisement of prescription drugs without the proper authorisation and approval, and when we identify violating content we work to remove them. We continue to improve our systems, including how we detect ads and behaviour that go against our rules."