About the Music:

- Instruments: Wind Quartet, Snare Drum and Wood Block
- Three versions of the rhyme in three different styles: waltz, jig and then finally a quick march.
- Trio sends the text up by pretending to be 'posh'.

Activities:

1. Listen to the bassoon play the introduction several times and then trace the pitch pattern with your hands.
2. Practice the pattern: stamp/clap/clap, stamp/clap/clap with the snare drum then waltz around the room playing that pattern.
3. Listen to the jig pattern and find ways to move in time to this pattern.
4. March to the quick march pattern saying the rhyme at the same time.
5. Choose a partner and make a dance for each style of music.
6. Practise and rehearse these dances and perform them.
