

4. "Carrot coming up!" called Mrs Elf. Elves heaved a big carrot out of the soil. "Wow!" said Holly. "To the lettuce patch", said the Wise Old Elf.

5. "Make it rain!" said the Wise Old Elf. "Using magic?" asked Holly. "No," replied Ben. "We used a big watering can!" "That's amazing!" said Holly.

The Wise Old Elf led the way to the chickens to collect King Thistle's egg.

8. "Collecting eggs is dangerous," Mr Elf said. "We have to pick the eggs up and run away very quickly. Otherwise, we get sat on by a chicken!" explained Ben.

9. "Aah!" shrieked an elf, running away. A chicken had escaped. It ran through the tomato plants, over the lettuce patch and across the carrots.

6. "These are the tomato plants," said Ben. "Ooh!" smiled Holly. "We have got tomato bugs!" called an elf. "Oh, dear!" sighed the Wise Old Elf.

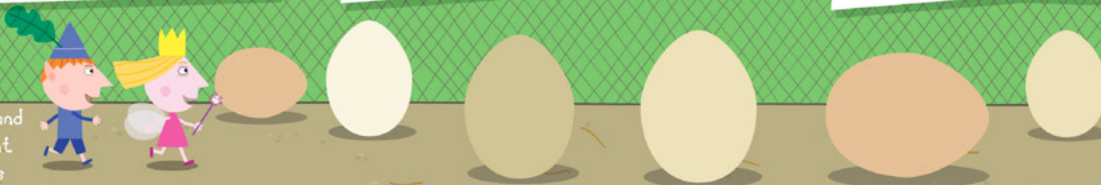

7. "Naughty Tomato bugs eating the tomatoes," said Ben. Munch! Munch! "Of course! Gaston just loves to eat tomato bugs!" said the Wise Old Elf.

10. "Catch that chicken!" yelled the Wise Old Elf. It ran out of the Elf farm, so everyone jumped in the Elf truck and followed it. The chicken ran to the castle. Cluck! Cluck! "Hello!" said Nanny Plum. "I want my egg!" yelled King Thistle. Pop! The Chicken laid an egg. "What great service! Better than the Elf truck!" Everyone laughed.
