

ACTIVITY SHEET

EPISODE 17: WATER AND AGEING

Identify whether these sentences are formal, informal or whether the two styles have been mixed.

1. The government has indicated that the system would be beneficial to the pensioners.
 - a. formal
 - b. informal
 - c. mixed

2. Some candidates find speaking to be the most difficult thing they've got to do.
 - a. formal
 - b. informal
 - c. mixed

3. As a result of the findings, the scientists commenced research into sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS).
 - a. formal
 - b. informal
 - c. mixed

4. It was shown that the conclusions didn't measure up.
 - a. formal
 - b. informal
 - c. mixed [was shown – formal, impersonal construction; didn't – informal, contraction]

5. The survey from which the results were tabulated indicated the standard of living for these people has declined significantly.
 - a. formal
 - b. informal
 - c. mixed

6. I think this project was very helpful.
- formal
 - informal
 - mixed
7. After the berries are harvested, the machine removes the pulp, leaving a thin parchment-like skin.
- formal
 - informal
 - mixed
8. There are many factors contributing to the argument and, therefore, should be considered before a decision is reached.
- formal
 - informal
 - mixed
9. The prices were increased by the company so it isn't clear what the affect will be.
- formal
 - informal
 - mixed [were increased – formal, impersonal construction; isn't – informal, contraction]
10. The economy is sustained by the sale of materials, such as gold and uranium, which are quite expensive.
- formal
 - informal
 - mixed

ANSWERS

1. The government has indicated that the system would be beneficial to the pensioners.
- a. formal
2. Some candidates find speaking to be the most difficult thing they've got to do.
- b. informal

3. As a result of the findings, the scientists commenced research into sudden infant death syndrome (SIDS).

a. formal

4. It was shown that the conclusions didn't measure up.

c. mixed [was shown – formal, impersonal construction; didn't – informal, contraction]

5. The survey from which the results were tabulated indicated the standard of living for these people has declined significantly.

a. formal

6. I think this project was very helpful.

b. informal

7. After the berries are harvested, the machine removes the pulp, leaving a thin parchment-like skin.

a. formal

8. There are many factors contributing to the argument and, therefore, should be considered before a decision is reached.

b. formal

9. The prices were increased by the company so it isn't clear what the affect will be.

c. mixed [were increased – formal, impersonal construction; isn't – informal, contraction]

10. The economy is sustained by the sale of materials, such as gold and uranium, which are quite expensive.

a. formal