

Response from Children's Health Queensland:

At the time of the event, Children's Health Queensland was unable to identify a patient in the Queensland Children's Hospital who matched the clinical presentation provided by media outlets. Without a patient's full name to verify identity, we are unable to definitively confirm if the child in question did or did not receive treatment at the Queensland Children's Hospital.