SUBJECT- VERB AGREEMENT

With any writing, whether it is IELTS Writing Task 1 and Writing Task 2, it is important that a verb agrees with its subject. This is called agreement.

When this agreement is made care must be taken to accurately identify the subject. Subjects may not always be obvious.

These study notes focus on the various kinds of subjects and their agreement with the verb.

Study Tips

For IELTS Writing Task 1 and Writing Task 2, remember to leave some time to check whether the subjects of your sentences agree with the verb in number and person.

Remember also that uncountable nouns are singular.

There are two main parts of a sentence, a subject (who or what) and a verb (action or condition). In order for a sentence to be grammatically correct, the verb must agree with the subject in number (singular or plural) and person (1st – I, 2nd –you, 3rd – s/he, it, they). A singular subject (one person/thing) must take a singular verb, and a plural subject (two or more people/things), a plural verb.

For example:

Subject – Verb Agreement
subjects	verb - singular	verb - plural
1 st person	I study in the library.	We study in the library.
2 nd person	You study in the library.	You study in the library.
3 rd person	S/He/It studies in the library.	They study in the library.

Generally, the verb form is the same for all persons with the exception of the 3rd person singular, which takes an s/es. The verbs to be and to have, however, are irregular, and change in other persons.

For example:

Verb Forms
	to be – present/past tenses		to have – present tense
	singular	plural	singular	plural
1st person	I am/was	we are/were	I have	we have
2nd person	you are/were	you are/were	you have	you have
3rd person	he is/was	they are/were	he has	they have she is/was		she has
	it is/was		it has

It may not always be obvious whether the subject is singular or plural. The table below lists a number of rules for subject – verb agreement using different subjects.

RULES Subject – Verb Agreement
Subject	Example
1. he, she, it – always singular	It is sunny, but cold today.
