

10-Aug-2026

Victorian Government spokesperson,

It's crucial for our justice system to strike the right balance when it comes to open justice – those found guilty of heinous crimes shouldn't get to use their influence to hide from that.

We are seeking advice on this because it's clear we need to make changes so that convicted rapists can't hide behind a mechanism intended to protect victims.