

Statement from an ABC spokesperson:

The ABC will keep the audience informed when these charges are resolved by the courts. We sought the vision you refer to, but it was not released by the court. The release of the accused on bail was also not confirmed by the court. We generally would not report unrelated allegations against a victim unless they're before the court as it may prejudice the court process.