

26-March-2026

From a Mirror spokesperson:

"We always intend to include the data an incident occurred. Unfortunately, in one article the date was omitted but this was human error and has now been corrected with an apology.

Quotes were sourced in good faith from other reputable news sources, which is standard practice. We will always consider correction requests when we receive them."