Statement from Clive Palmer,

The message in the proposed ad was – Labor & Liberals care about they them, we care about you.

“Despite what I believe is an assault on our freedom of speech, we have withdrawn the ad, and will be fully focussed on promoting our common-sense policies and solutions to the real problems Australians are facing, to make this country great again,” he said.

The gender ad was just one of a multi advertisement package covering Trumpet of Patriots policies for the 2025 federal election.

“I am not interested in buying ACM, it’s not worth it,” he said.
