

ACTIVITY SHEET

EPISODE 2: VITAMIN D

Practise and consolidate your learning by completing our activities. In this one you need to choose the correct modal verb to complete the sentences below.

In most countries of the world students 1. _____ pay university fees. There is simply no choice.

1. a. must
b. need
c. can

However, in Britain and some other countries, including even China, students 2. _____ borrow money from banks to cover compulsory fees. Banks are now making it possible in Australia for students to borrow money to cover fees.

2. a. can
b. may
c. shall

When I was going to university, I 3. _____ find a part-time job to earn some pocket money, because my family was not rich.

3. a. had to
b. must
c. should

There are not many jobs a student 4. _____ do part-time. Most students find jobs as waiters, serving in restaurants, or working in kitchens and so on.

4. a. can
b. may
c. should

I really believe that all students 5. _____ get a casual job, chiefly because it is good experience. This was the advice my father gave me and it helped me enormously.

5. a. would
b. should
c. must

I told you I 6. _____ get a Distinction, and I did!

6. a. will
b. would
c. shall

For post-graduate study in the United States of America it 7. _____ be possible to get a scholarship to cover the tuition costs of the degree.

7. a. will
b. can
c. might

However, I am not so sure – you 8. _____ have to check.

8. a. can

- b. will
- c. should

Australians love the beach. It is important to remember that exposure to the Australian sun, especially in summer is dangerous. So, you 9. _____ wear a hat.

- 9. a. can
- b. may
- c. should

Of course you really 10. _____ to apply lots of sunscreen on exposed skin.

- 10. a. ought
- b. can
- c. should

Answers

1. In most countries of the world students must pay university fees. There is simply no choice.
2. However, in Britain and some other countries, including even China, students can borrow money from banks to cover compulsory fees. Banks are now making it possible in Australia for students to borrow money to cover fees.
3. When I was going to university I had to find a part-time job to earn some pocket money, because my family was not rich.
4. There are not many jobs a student can do part-time. Most students find jobs as waiters, serving in restaurants, or working in kitchens and so on.
5. I really believe that all students should get a casual job, chiefly because it is good experience. This was the advice my father gave me and it helped me enormously.
6. I told you I would get a Distinction, and I did!
7. For post-graduate study in the United States of America it might be possible to get a scholarship to cover the tuition costs of the degree.
8. However, I am not so sure – you 8. will have to check.
9. Australians love the beach. It is important to remember that exposure to the Australian sun , especially in summer is dangerous. So, you 9. should wear a hat.
10. Of course you really 10. ought to apply lots of sunscreen on exposed skin.