Statement from Dr Norman Swan, Presenter, RN Health Report:

This story hides behind a misplaced view of ABC's need for balance.

There is no balance possible between facts and non-science. Large numbers of children are dying in Samoa partly because of the power of the anti vaccination movement in that country.

The ABC has no obligation to put dangerous views to air for the sake of balance. Quite the contrary.