3y email

I refer to your email of 28 February 2012 in which you sought access to documents under the Freedom of Information Act (FOI Act). Specifically, your request was as follows:

"I would like to request a list of advertised vacancies at the ABC for the last 10 years. I would like information about jobs which are advertised for more than twelve months. I would like information that specifies job title, duration and employment division."

I have identified the information you have requested, and access to that information is granted. A spreadsheet containing a list of advertised vacancies from 2002 to 2011 is attached. The spreadsheet provides the date of advertising, job title and division for each vacancy.

Please note that whilst the ABC has been able to extract information regarding positions which are for more than twelve months, it has not been possible to identify the specific duration of each vacancy.

If you have any questions or would like further information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Mande.
