

As I mentioned, our CEO is on leave so we won't put anyone up for your piece.

I'm not sure if we can add to what we've already talked about except to say that we already have a policy of not donating directly to political parties and we do not employ third parties to lobby on IAG's behalf. We do on occasion attend political conferences, lunches, dinners or other events which is an important part of the democratic process and our participation in this process - we disclose these via the AEC website. We also outline our policy via our annual report and IAG website and provide a link to the AEC website. This is consistent with Australian legislation.

Cheers

Amanda

Amanda Wallace
head of Corporate communications