

Hello hullo.

From 'a Seven spokesman' please -

"The incident was covered by Seven, including on 7News Melbourne and 7mate's Talking Footy which airs in WA as well as Melbourne and Adelaide.

"7News WA's story focused on Nic Naitanui's injury, since local fans would be more concerned about a player with a history of injury being sidelined again, and possibly his career over.

"The Eagles did not ask that we ignore the incident. We did not discuss the editorial content of the story with them, and we did not self-censor."

Cheers
Steve
