Since humans rolled out the first wheel, we have been tinkering with new inventions. THE NEW INVENTORS takes us on a fascinating quest for the latest inventions and trend-setting designs.

Celebrating and showcasing the most recent creations from the new generation of innovators and designers, the program profiles, encourages and supports these inventors beavering away in their design studios, backyard sheds and kitchens, seeking answers to everyday domestic, industrial and commercial challenges.

Paying tribute to the ingenuity of these great ideas is a panel of designers, architects, engineers, and scientists who probe the inventors to discover which inventions are the most innovative, original and meet the greatest needs of the community. Ultimately, they select and showcase the "Invention of the Year". Sometimes playful, often practical, the creations on THE NEW INVENTORS always promise to amaze.
