

Response from an ABC spokesperson:

ABC Far North Queensland's interview with a representative from Reignite Democracy broadcast on 12 August lacked editorial balance and was in breach of several ABC Editorial Guidelines. A correction has been published and the issue has been taken up with the program team responsible. ABC Far North Queensland has provided local audiences with many interviews with qualified health professionals both before and after that interview aired.