- 5.1.2 The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 1 August 2028.
- 5.1.3 If requested by the CPSU, MEAA or the ABC, the parties will meet in the four months prior to the nominal expiry date of this Agreement to commence negotiations for an agreement to replace this Agreement.
- 5.1.4 Despite subclause 5.1.1, while the effective date of any change to salaries or allowances in this Agreement will be the Commencement Date or the date specified for that particular change, if applicable, the actual date for payment of any increase in salaries or allowances (including any back pay) will be the payment date of the first full pay period following the Commencement Date. 7. No Extra Claims

- 7.1.1 The wage increases and other improvements in conditions of employment provided for by this Agreement are in full settlement of all existing claims made by the CPSU, MEAA and the employees or on behalf of the employees.
- 7.1.2 It is a term of this Agreement that the ABC, the CPSU, MEAA and the employees will not pursue any extra claims for improvement in wages or other terms and conditions of employment for the duration of this Agreement. 8. Leave Reserved

- 8.1.1 The CPSU, MEAA and the ABC may exercise their rights in respect of Work Level Standards as set out in the document Terms of Reference for the Review of the Work Level Standards (Incorporating Role Templates and Reward for Multi-skilling), as amended by the parties in August 2013.

Part B Purpose, Principles and Objectives

9. Purpose

- 9.1.1 The purpose of this Agreement is to provide terms and conditions of employment that are responsive to the ABC's needs, the needs and aspirations of its employees, and the environment in which the ABC operates.

10. Principles

- 10.1.1 The ABC recognises the role unions play in the workplace and the right of union delegates to represent union members in the workplace. The unions and union delegates recognise the ABC's statutory obligations, operational requirements and in exercising their rights, agree to consider the likely effect on these factors.
- 10.1.2 The ABC recognises the value of work performed by all employees through the application of the ABC's classification system.
- 10.1.3 The terms and conditions of this Agreement help give effect to the commitment of the parties covered by this Agreement by:
- a. supporting a mobile, multi-skilled workforce through broad banded (including cross-media) classification structures that preclude unnecessary demarcations;
 - b. enabling jobs to be designed at the local level to encourage an appropriate blend of multi-skilled and specialist employees, and to provide for the smooth introduction of new technology; and
 - c. supporting the adoption of the ABC values, as amended from time to time.
- 10.1.4 In particular, the parties are committed to:
- a. encouragement of a whole of life balance between work and private responsibilities;
 - b. promoting reasonable workloads for employees. The ABC is committed to the safety and well-being of employees. Managers and employees will work together when employees raise concerns about their workloads and associated issues;
 - c. promoting an open working environment based on direct feedback between managers and employees; and
 - d. promoting job security, employability and career development. This Agreement provides opportunities for employees to work in different areas of the organisation.

11. Objectives

11.1 Workforce Planning Objectives

- 11.1.1 The ABC is committed to strategies that increase the flexibility of its workforce and enhance and broaden the skills of its employees. Such strategies include, but are not limited to:
- a. training and developing the current workforce; and
 - b. encouraging employee mobility.

 - b. address current skills shortages and areas of emerging need;

- c. increase skill development and promote career opportunities for all employees;
 - d. develop skills that maximise employability both internally and externally;
 - e. support identified training needs; and
 - f. facilitate redeployment opportunities for potentially excess employees.
- 11.2.3 Employees will not unreasonably refuse to undertake training and development activities designed to broaden their skills and/or enhance their career opportunities. Employees will take an active responsibility for the development of their own careers.
- 11.2.4 Training and development will incorporate the ABC's diversity and inclusion objectives, and there will be equity of access for all employees (including those in remote locations) to training and development opportunities.

11.3 Mobility and Career Development Objectives

- 11.3.1 Subject to the application of the merit principle, and having regard to operational requirements, the ABC will:
- a. encourage mobility of employees within the ABC;
 - b. support employees actively seeking opportunities to work in different areas of the ABC;
 - c. ensure all reasonable steps are taken to assign ABC employees on ABC commissioned programs, including co-productions;
 - d. ensure that requests for transfer/reassignment are managed impartially having regard to program needs and employees' development goals and career aspirations;
 - e. promote the engagement of Ongoing Employees in preference to non-Ongoing Employees; and
 - f. promote the engagement of internal employees in preference to external candidates.

- 11.4.1 The ABC is committed to diversity and inclusion in its workforce and recognises that a diverse workforce helps us reflect Australia's cultural diversity and shared identity.
- 11.4.2 The ABC will continue our commitment to work towards promoting equal opportunity for women, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples, people from non-English speaking backgrounds, people with disability, and LGBTQIA+ employees.

- a. diversity composition of the employees;
 - b. gender composition of employees at each band;
 - c. gender pay gap of employees;
 - d. gender composition of employees by employment type (full-time, part-time and casual); and
 - e. variance of attrition rates of employees between genders.
- 11.4.4 Nothing in this document precludes the ABC from having regard to its Diversity and Inclusion Plan as amended from time to time, as applicable.

11.5 Flexibility Objectives

- 11.5.1 The ABC acknowledges and supports working from home as a legitimate form of flexible working. The ABC recognises that working from home arrangements can enhance employee wellbeing, support work-life balance, and contribute to a more inclusive and adaptable workplace.
- 11.5.2 Subject to operational requirements and individual role suitability, employees may request to work from home on a regular or ad hoc basis pursuant to the relevant guidelines set by the ABC from time to time. Such arrangements will be considered in good faith, with the aim of fostering flexibility while maintaining productivity, collaboration, and operational requirements. The ABC will introduce Flexible Working Guidelines within the lifetime of the Agreement and will consult with the CPSU and MEAA before finalising these guidelines.

11.6 Rostering Objectives

- 11.6.1 The ABC recognises that providing employees with advance notice of their roster supports employees in managing their work and personal responsibilities.
- 11.6.2 During the term of this Agreement, the ABC commits to reviewing the current rostering practices to ensure employees are provided as much advance notice of their rosters as operationally practicable.

11.7 Artificial Intelligence Objective

- 11.7.1 The ABC is committed to the ethical use of artificial intelligence (AI) and will develop ABC AI principles in relation to this commitment. The ABC will provide training and support for staff on the responsible use of AI in the workplace.

Part C Flexibility

12. Individual Flexibility Arrangements

- 12.1.1 The ABC and an employee covered by this Agreement may agree to make an individual flexibility arrangement to vary the effect of the Agreement if:
- a. the individual flexibility arrangement varies the effect of one or more of the terms of the Agreement dealing with the following matters:
 - i. arrangements about when work is performed (including rosters and the arrangement of free days, provided that the minimum number of free days is not less than four per fortnight);
 - ii. overtime rates;
 - iii. penalty rates;
 - iv. allowances;
 - v. leave loading; and
 - b. the arrangement is genuinely agreed to by the ABC and the employee.
- 12.1.2 Prior to entering into an arrangement, the employee may request that the ABC provide, to the extent practicable, an estimate of the payments they would have been entitled to for the prospective year based, as far as possible, on the pattern of hours they will be expected to work.
- 12.1.3 The employee will be advised of their right to representation in negotiating the arrangement.
- 12.1.4 The salary rate determined under an individual flexibility arrangement will be regarded as salary for superannuation purposes in accordance with the relevant legislation.
- 12.1.5 The ABC must ensure that the terms of the individual flexibility arrangement:
- a. are about permitted matters under section 172 of the FW Act;
 - b. contain no unlawful terms under section 194 of the FW Act; and
 - c. result in the employee being better off overall, compared to this Agreement, than the employee would be if no arrangement was made.
- 12.1.6 The ABC must ensure that the individual flexibility arrangement:
- a. is in writing;
 - b. includes the name of the ABC and the employee;
 - c. is signed by the ABC and the employee and, if the employee is under 18 years of age, is also signed by a parent or guardian of the employee; and
 - d. includes details of:
 - i. the terms of the Agreement that will be varied by the arrangement;
 - ii. how the arrangement will vary the effect of the terms;
 - iii. how the employee will be better off overall compared to this Agreement in relation to the terms and conditions of their employment as a result of the arrangement; and
 - iv. states the day on which the arrangement commences.
- 12.1.7 The ABC must give the employee a copy of the individual flexibility arrangement within 14 days after it is agreed to.
- 12.1.8 The right to make an arrangement pursuant to this subclause is in addition to, and is not intended to otherwise affect, any provision for an agreement between the ABC and an individual employee contained in any other term of this Agreement.
- 12.1.9 The ABC or employee may terminate the individual flexibility arrangement:
- a. by giving 28 days' written notice to the other party to the arrangement; or

b. if the ABC and employee agree in writing – at any time.

12.1.10 Requests for informal flexible working arrangements, including but not limited to one-off, short-term or other arrangements for circumstances that are not permanent and are not an individual flexibility arrangement under clause 12.1.1 (Informal Arrangements) can be made in accordance with Schedule G.

Part D Recruitment

13. Advertising and Selection

13.1 Guidelines

- 13.1.1 The ABC's Recruitment and Selection Guidelines as varied or amended from time to time do not form part of this Agreement. In the event of inconsistency, the Agreement will prevail.

13.2 Advertising

- 13.2.1 All vacancies will be advertised, except where:

- a. the vacancy is expected to be for six months or less duration;
- b. the vacancy relates to a key program or project requiring the skills and attributes of a particular person, which may involve canvassing potential candidates on a discreet basis;
- c. the vacancy is to be filled by transfer or redeployment;
- d. the vacancy is to be filled by the appointment of an employee on return from a temporary assignment or period of approved absence where there is a statutory obligation on the ABC to place them in a similar position to the one previously held;
- e. a suitable candidate for the vacancy has already been identified through a selection process conducted within the last 12 months (from the close of advertising) for a similar or generic role;
- f. the vacancy is a Run of Show engagement and is to be filled by an employee on an existing Run of Show engagement, or an employee who has received an offer of further Run of Show Employment;
- g. the vacancy is to be filled by the appointment of the current temporary incumbent, provided they have been employed in the position for a period of six months or more and have previously undergone a documented selection process for that position; or
- h. an existing employee is converted from Fixed Term Employment, Run of Show Employment, Specified Task Employment or Casual Employment to Ongoing Employment (including any conversion by agreement, as required by legislation or this Agreement).

- 13.2.2 In the event that the ABC has determined it will not advertise a short-term or long term vacancy for an Identified Position, and the ABC is not relying on subclauses 13.2.1b, 13.2.1c, 13.2.1e, 13.2.1g and 13.2.1h, the ABC will during the recruitment process, notify employees in writing that the vacancy is an Identified Position and the reason for the advertising exemption, to ensure that any staff who meet the new criteria are able to express an interest and/or apply for the vacancy.

13.3 Selection for Short Term Vacancies

- 13.3.1 Where a vacancy is expected to be greater than six months but not more than 12 months' duration, the manager will document the selection, which will be based on merit, as well as having regard to operational requirements. For the avoidance of doubt, selection based on merit does not preclude the manager having regard to the ABC's Diversity and Inclusion Plan, as amended from time to time.

13.4 Selection for Long Term Vacancies

- 13.4.1 A Selection Panel will be formed for all advertised vacancies greater than 12 months, except where:

- a. the vacancy relates to a key program or project requiring the skills and attributes of a particular person, which may involve canvassing potential candidates on a discreet basis;
- b. the vacancy is to be filled by transfer or redeployment;
- c. the vacancy is to be filled by the appointment of an employee on return from a temporary transfer or period of approved absence where there is a statutory obligation on the ABC to place them in a similar position to the one previously held;
- d. a suitable candidate for the vacancy has already been identified through a selection process conducted within the last 12 months (from the close of advertising) for a similar or generic role;

- e. the vacancy is to be filled by the appointment of the current temporary incumbent provided they have been employed in the position for six months or more and have previously undergone a documented selection process for that position;
 - f. there is only one applicant for the vacancy; or
 - g. the vacancy is a Run of Show engagement and is to be filled by an employee on an existing Run of Show engagement or whose Run of Show engagement has expired within four weeks of the vacancy being approved to fill.
- 13.4.2 The Selection Panel will consist of more than one person and will make recommendations regarding appointment but does not have authority to appoint an applicant to the vacant position.
- 13.4.3 The ABC's nominated Delegate will make the decision regarding appointment to the vacant position (Selection Decision).
- 13.4.4 For the avoidance of doubt, where an existing employee is converted from Fixed Term, Run of Show, Specified Task or Casual Employment to Ongoing Employment (including any conversion by agreement or as required by legislation or this Agreement), that conversion does not constitute a vacancy and does not require the formation of a Selection Panel under this subclause.

13.5 Internal Candidates

- 13.5.1 Where a Selection Panel has been formed in accordance with subclause 13.4.1;
- a. all internal applicants for the vacancy who meet all of the selection criteria will be interviewed, subject to subclause 13.5.1b;
 - b. in circumstances where there are more than three internal applicants who are assessed as meeting all of the selection criteria:
 - i. there may be further short listing processes to identify the best candidates, which may include asking candidates to undertake a further task; and
 - ii. after this process has been undertaken, a minimum of the three best internal applicants will be interviewed.

 - iii. summary dismissal is lawful, in which case the ABC may terminate the employment before the end of the specified task.

14.3.7 For the avoidance of doubt, if an employee, other than an employee described in subclause 14.4, is employed for a Specified Task Employment engagement with an anticipated duration of 18 months or more and is not advised at the time of offer of employment that they are employed on Nominated Long Term

Specified Task Employment, the employee's employment may only be terminated prior to completion of the specified task by summary dismissal or during Probation (if applicable under subclause 14.10).

18.3.2 Subject to statutory requirements, the absence of formal qualifications will not of itself be a barrier to the consideration of task broadening/mobility options. Rather, attention will be paid to the employee's knowledge, skills and experience in being able to meet operational requirements, and to the employee's development needs and career aspirations identified in the performance management and development system.

19. Salary Progression

19.1 Progression to a Higher Band

19.1.1 Progression from one salary band to a higher band will constitute promotion and may occur at any point in the year as a result of:

- 21.1.5 The employee will be advised of their right to representation in negotiating the package. Any agreement will be in writing.

21.2 Annual Buyout of Penalties, Allowances and/or Overtime

- 21.2.2 Such agreement will be in writing and will state which payments are displaced by the loading and by what amount. The employee will be advised of their right to representation in negotiating the agreement.
- 21.2.3 Prior to entering into such an agreement, the employee will be advised of an estimate of the payments they would have been entitled to for the prospective year based, as far as possible, on the pattern of hours they will be expected to work.
- 21.2.4 If the employee's pattern of ordinary hours of work changes during the period of the agreement or the loading is found to be wrongly calculated or extraordinary events have intervened, the level of loading may be reviewed and the rate changed by agreement to reflect the new circumstances. Failing this, the buyout agreement may be terminated by either the employee or the ABC two weeks prior to the commencement of the next roster cycle.
- 21.2.5 The buyout agreement will last for a period of 12 months at which time the level of loading will be reviewed or either party may terminate and revert to the conditions contained in this Agreement.
- 21.2.6 The loading will be payable during all periods of paid leave (other than long service leave), provided that payment of the loading during personal/carers leave will be capped at one month per annum.

- 21.3.4 The buyout agreement may be terminated by either the employee or the ABC two weeks prior to the commencement of the next roster cycle.

- 21.4.1 For the purposes of subclauses 21.1, 21.2 and 21.3, any salary packaging, annual buyouts of penalties, allowances and overtime and buyouts on short term distant assignments and special events (Arrangements) made must:

 - f. be in writing and be signed:
 - i. in all cases by the employee and the ABC; and
 - ii. if the employee is under 18 – by a parent or guardian of the employee.

For the avoidance of doubt, this does not affect the operation of any salary packaging or buyout entered into prior to the operation of the ABC Enterprise Agreement 2016 - 2019 under any previous enterprise agreement which continue to operate under this Agreement.

- c. Additional leave under this subclause will be subject to the same terms and conditions as normal annual leave.

37.2 Schedule B Employees

37.2.1 Schedule B employees will receive six weeks' annual leave to be accrued at the rate of 228 hours per year of service for full-time employees (or pro rata thereof for part-time employees).

B = the number of calendar days to count as service in the period.
C = 6

- f. The decision to use any of the leave types in subclause 37.3.2e is entirely at the employee's discretion.
- g. If an employee has sufficient accrued annual leave or paid time off in lieu to cover the Annual Close Down, but there are exceptional circumstances which mean that being required to take the annual leave or paid time off would significantly adversely impact the employee, the employee may request that they be able to make other arrangements with the ABC. The ABC will not unreasonably refuse that request.

 - ii. each cashing out of a particular amount of annual leave must be by a separate agreement between the ABC and the employee;
 - iii. the employee must be paid the full amount that would have been payable to the employee had the employee taken the leave that the employee has foregone at the time the leave is being cashed out; and

Where it is not practicable to grant the extra leave, the employee will be paid for the hours credited.
- 39.4.3 In the case of an employee whose ordinary hours are confined to Monday to Friday, this subclause does not apply when a public holiday falls on a Saturday or Sunday.

39.5 Half Day Public Holiday

- 39.5.1 A half day public holiday will cover a period of 12 hours and will either cease at midday or commence at midday, depending on the event being celebrated.

- b. advising the ABC as soon as reasonably practicable of any absence; and
- c. providing suitable supporting documentation when requested by the ABC.

40.2.5 There is no limit to the maximum continuous amount of personal leave that may be used for absences, subject to available credits, medical certification and, if required, the opinion of a medical practitioner nominated by the ABC.

For the avoidance of doubt, the ABC recognises that personal / carer's leave can be used for absences connected to an employee's reproductive health needs, subject to the leave otherwise meeting the requirements set out in clause 40. This includes attending medical appointments, undergoing treatment or procedures, managing symptoms, or recovering from reproductive health-related conditions.

40.7.6 If, during the period described at subclause 40.7.5, the pattern or duration of the employee's absences indicates a likely long-term absence exceeding three months in a continuous period or totals more than three months in a 12 month period, the ABC may, on reasonable grounds, require updated supporting documentation from the employee's treating doctor or relevant allied health professional. In making such a request, the ABC will have regard to the nature of the condition, the information previously provided, and will give the employee reasonable time to obtain the documentation.

53.1.7 Without limiting subclause 53.1.6 above, where the ABC is consulting under this clause in relation to a major change that leads to a circumstance referred to in subclause 54.5.1:

- a. the ABC will undertake consultation with the relevant employees and their representatives (if any) for a period of time deemed reasonable and proportionate by the ABC, having regard to the nature, scale and potential impact of the proposed change;
- b. the consultation process will ordinarily extend for approximately four weeks, unless the ABC considers that a shorter or longer period is reasonably appropriate in the circumstances;

- c. the ABC may (but is not obligated to) extend the consultation period in circumstances where a union of the relevant employees submits an alternative proposal during the consultation period, to enable consideration of that proposal;
 - d. at the ABC's sole discretion, the ABC may commence a further consultation period in response to the union's alternative proposal; and
 - e. the ABC may, at its discretion, seek feedback from other areas of the ABC regarding the impact of the change proposal.
- 53.1.8 However, the ABC is not required to disclose confidential or commercially sensitive information to the relevant employees.
- 53.1.9 The ABC must give prompt and genuine consideration to matters raised about major workplace change.
- 53.1.10 In this clause, a major change is likely to have a significant effect on employees if it results in:
- a. the termination of the employment of employees;
 - b. major change to the composition, operation or size of the ABC's workforce or to the skills required of employees;
 - c. the elimination or diminution of job opportunities (including opportunities for promotion or tenure);
 - d. the alteration of hours of work;
 - e. the need to retrain employees;
 - f. the need to relocate employees to another workplace; or
 - g. the restructuring of jobs.
- 53.1.11 In this clause, "relevant employees" means the employees who may be affected by the major change.

Part M Redundancy

54. Redundancy

54.1 General

- 54.1.1 Wherever possible, the ABC will adopt positive alternatives to redundancy, and will seek to minimise the need for redundancies through workforce planning, employee development and performance management strategies, backed up by an active redeployment and retraining policy.

54.2 Reasons for Redundancy

- 54.2.1 An employee is redundant where:
- a. they are no longer required for the efficient and economical operation of the ABC; or
 - b. they cannot be effectively employed because of technological change or other changes in work practices; or
 - c. their function is transferred to another location that is not within reasonable commuting distance of their current location, they are not willing to relocate and there is no suitable alternative position available within reasonable commuting distance; or
 - d. their skills, talents or perceived audience appeal are no longer relevant to the ABC's overall program requirements.

54.3 Exclusions

- 54.3.1 This clause does not apply to:
- a. Fixed Term Employees, Specified Task Employees, or Run of Show Employees;
 - b. Phased Retired Employees if the employment is terminating at the agreed end date;
 - c. employees on Probation; or
 - d. Casual Employees.

54.4 Voluntary Redundancy, Substitution and Redeployment

- 54.4.1 At any time after likely redundancies have been identified, the ABC may at its discretion call for expressions of interest in voluntary redundancies. This includes calling for expressions of interest in voluntary redundancy from unaffected employees in substitution for affected employees and/or opportunities for redeployment for affected employees.
- 54.4.2 In assessing the viability of substitution, the ABC will have regard to the relative competency, experience and efficiency of the employees in question and the relative costs of redundancy between the affected employee/s and the proposed substitute employee/s. The final decision in relation to substitution and/or redeployment will rest with the ABC.
- 54.4.3 Where the ABC agrees to a substitution:
- a. the substitute employee will, as soon as practicable, be formally notified that they are to be retrenched in accordance with 54.6.1; and
 - b. the original employee will be redeployed into the substitute employee's position.

54.5 Redundancy (Pool) Selection Process

- 54.5.1 This subclause applies in circumstances where more than 10 employees are to be made redundant from a change proposal and sets out what is required to comply with subclause 53.1.6 and 53.1.7.
- 54.5.2 For the purposes of clause 54.5.1, where there are multiple change proposals which are announced within seven days of each other and for substantially the same reason, then the change proposals which relate to a particular Division will be treated as a single change proposal in that Division. The ABC will not delay announcing a change proposal with the intended effect of avoiding its obligations under clause 54.5. For the avoidance of doubt, a change proposal does not include redundancies arising from employees expressing interest in voluntary redundancy.

- 54.5.3 The ABC will make a preliminary determination of the classes of employees from which redundancies will occur (Likely Affected Class) and the number of employees to be made redundant.
- 54.5.4 Having complied with subclause 54.5.3 the ABC will then:
- a. call for expressions of interest from suitable employees for voluntary redundancy from those in the Division in which the Likely Affected Class is contained. The ABC will also advise a closing date and time, which would ordinarily be within 10 days of the call for expressions of interest;
 - b. consider all expressions of interest, however, the ABC will make the final decision as to whether it accepts any expression of interest for voluntary redundancy, rejects the application or defers its consideration to the time for the consideration under subclause 54.5.7 (Deferred Expression of Interest); and
 - c. communicate its decisions to employees who express interest in voluntary redundancy and its decision (including under clause 54.5.7) will be final and cannot be challenged (including under Part O).
- 54.5.5 In the event that the process under subclause 54.5.4 does not result in sufficient redundancies to meet the number identified under subclause 54.5.3, the ABC will commence consultation about the change proposal under clause 53. For that purpose, the ABC will notify the Likely Affected Class and their representatives of, and consult with them about, the number of employees to be made redundant, the Likely Affected Class, the selection criteria and the employees within the Likely Affected Class most at risk of redundancy (At Risk Employees).
- 54.5.6 Following notification and consultation, which will ordinarily be concluded within 14 days from the date of notification in subclause 54.5.5, the ABC will make a final determination and publish the class of employees from which redundancies will occur (the Affected Class), the number of employees within the Affected Class to be made redundant and the selection criteria (Final Selection Criteria). "Publish" means, provide in writing to the Affected Class and their representatives.
- 54.5.7 The ABC will then select the employees from the Affected Class to be made redundant by applying the Final Selection Criteria and will provide them with written notification under subclause 54.6.1 (Selected Employee).
- 54.5.8 The ABC will, at this stage, consider any Deferred Expression of Interest or any other expression of interest in substitution made within 14 days of the notice to the Selected Employee under subclause 54.5.7 and whether the employee concerned might be substituted for any Selected Employee to whom subclause 54.5.4b applies. Subclauses 54.4.1 and 54.4.2 will apply to this process. The ABC decision in relation to substitution will be final and cannot be challenged (including under Part O).
- 54.5.9 For the avoidance of doubt, subclauses 54.5.5 to 54.5.7 does not apply if the ABC decides compulsory redundancies are unnecessary in view of the number of expressions of interest for voluntary redundancy accepted by the ABC.
- 54.5.10 The operation of subclause 54.5 can be varied by agreement with the representatives of the Likely Affected Class, however, this does not require consultation over a proposal for a different process than set out in subclause 54.5.
- 54.6 Notification of Redundancy
- 54.6.1 Where, following initial discussions and completion of a redundancy selection process if applicable, the ABC has determined that an employee is redundant for a reason or reasons specified in 54.2.1 (other than a substitute employee who is to be made redundant under subclause 54.4.1 or 54.5.8), or an employee whose expression of interest in voluntary redundancy is accepted), the ABC will ensure that the employee receives written notification inviting them to consider and choose from the following options:
- a. to accept immediate retrenchment under 54.9.1a; or
 - b. to explore redeployment and retraining opportunities in accordance with 54.7.
- 54.6.2 In the event the employee fails to advise the ABC of their choice within seven days of being informed under subclause 54.6.1, the employee will be deemed to have chosen option 54.6.1a above.

- 54.6.3 An employee who is absent on approved annual leave, long service leave or LWOP at the date of notification under 54.6.1 will be entitled to complete that leave and will not be required to make the choice under 54.6.1 until the conclusion of that leave, unless they agree otherwise. If the employee decides to complete their leave, that decision will not of itself delay progression of the reason/s giving rise to the redundancy.

54.7 Redeployment and Retraining Period

- 54.7.1 If an affected employee chooses to explore redeployment and retraining opportunities as allowed by subclause 54.6.1b the ABC will:
- a. make an assessment of their competencies;
 - b. provide advice on employment options;
 - c. canvass work areas for possible suitable vacancies;
 - d. assess reasonable retraining options;
 - e. assist with interview and job search skills; and
 - f. take other appropriate action.
- 54.7.2 At the employee's discretion, the ABC will continue to explore redeployment and retraining possibilities for up to six weeks from the date the employee was first notified under 54.6.1 that they are redundant.
- 54.7.3 An employee who takes personal/carer's leave during the redeployment and retraining period may apply, on production of a medical certificate, for an extension of the redeployment period for a period equal to the personal/carer's leave taken. An extension of the redeployment period will be at the discretion of the ABC, depending on the employee's prospects of redeployment and any other factor it considers relevant. If the period of personal/carer's leave is more than two weeks and the ABC declines an application for an extension, the employee will, in addition to the retrenchment payments set out in 54.10.1 receive a payment equal to the period of personal/carers leave taken up to a maximum of four weeks.

54.8 Decision to Redeploy

- 54.8.1 The ABC may redeploy an employee to a vacant position above, at or below the employee's substantive salary, provided that:
- a. the employee is assessed by the ABC as possessing the competencies required for the position, or may be able to attain those competencies with reasonable training; and
 - b. the employee agrees to the redeployment.
- 54.8.2 Where an employee is to be redeployed to a position at a lower substantive salary band, they will be entitled to income maintenance from the date of redeployment. The duration of income maintenance will be calculated incrementally at the rate of four weeks for each year (or part year thereof to a completed month) of continuous service. The minimum period of income maintenance will be 12 weeks and the maximum period 44 weeks.
- 54.8.3 Salary for income maintenance purposes will be fixed in dollar terms other than for increases applying under subclause 17.1.1. Salary for income maintenance purposes will include any regular shift penalties received (on average) over the 12 months preceding the date of redeployment.
- 54.8.4 The amount of income maintenance will be reduced by the amount of any increase payable through the performance management and development system.

54.9 Notification of Retrenchment

- 54.9.1 The ABC will formally notify an employee in writing that they are to be retrenched if:
- a. following initial discussions they do not wish to examine redeployment and retraining options; or
 - b. after choosing to examine redeployment and retraining options no suitable alternative employment has been found; or
 - c. the employee has agreed to be substituted under 54.4.1 or 54.5.8; or
 - d. the employee has expressed interest in voluntary redundancy and this has been accepted.

54.10 Payments

54.10.1 An employee who is retrenched will receive:

- a. notice or payment in lieu of notice:

Period of Continuous Service and Age	Period of Notice
Under five years	Four weeks
Five years and over and under 50 years of age	Five weeks
Five years and over and 50 years of age or older	Six weeks

Provided that payment in lieu of notice will require employee agreement in the case of an employee who is notified that they are to be retrenched under 54.9.1b.

- b. a severance payment equal to four weeks' salary for every completed year of service for the first five years and three weeks' salary for every completed year of service thereafter to a maximum of 24 years' service. Pro rata calculation to the nearest completed month of service applies after the first year. This payment is intended to satisfy an employee's entitlement to redundancy pay under the NES and is not intended to be in addition to such entitlements.
- c. where an employee has worked part-time hours during their period of service and has less than 24 years of full-time service, the severance payment will be calculated on a pro rata basis for those periods of part-time service, subject to any minimum amount the employee is entitled to under the NES.
- d. severance payment shall be calculated by counting periods of full-time service in full before applying a pro rata calculation to any periods of part-time service.
- e. any unpaid long service leave and pro rata long service leave.
- f. any unpaid annual leave and annual leave loading.
- g. payment in lieu for the un-worked portion of the redeployment and retraining period specified in 54.7.2, where the employee (other than a substitute employee under 54.4.1 or 54.5.8 or an employee whose expression of interest in voluntary redundancy is accepted) leaves before the expiration of the six week period.

54.10.2 Unless otherwise agreed, 'service' means continuous service with the ABC (provided that any break between periods of employment is not greater than two months) and/or:

- a. previous Commonwealth service where the employee transferred to the ABC under Public Service Act Mobility provisions or former recognised arrangements such as the Public Service - Officers' Rights Declaration Act; and/or
- b. the ADF;

and the service did not cease by retrenchment, retirement on grounds of medical incapacity, inefficiency or loss of qualifications, abandonment of employment, dismissal, termination during Probation, or voluntary retirement at or above the minimum retiring age applicable to the employee or with the payment of an employer-financed retirement benefit.

54.10.3 For the purpose of calculating any payment under 54.10.1, 'salary' will include:

- a. the employee's base salary;
- b. higher duties allowance where the employee has been acting for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately prior to the date of formal notification of retrenchment under subclause 54.9;
- c. regular shift penalties paid (on average) over the 12 months immediately preceding the date of formal notification, provided the employee has been paid penalties for at least half the pay periods over that period; and
- d. other allowances in the nature of salary which are paid during periods of annual leave, excluding allowances which are reimbursement for expenses incurred, or payment for disabilities associated with the performance of duty.

- 54.10.4 Retrenched employees who exercise their right under the mobility provisions of the Public Employment (Consequent and Transitional) Act 1999 (Cth) to seek reappointment to the Australian Public Service will not be eligible for the payments under this clause.

54.11 Re-engagement

- 54.11.1 An employee who is paid a retrenchment benefit will not be re-engaged by the ABC within 12 months of their retrenchment, without the approval of the Managing Director.

Part N Misconduct, Incapacity and Separation

55. Misconduct

55.1 Definition

- 55.1.1 Misconduct (including Serious Misconduct) includes but is not limited to one or more circumstances where an employee:
- a. wilfully disobeys or disregards a reasonable and lawful direction;
 - b. is inefficient or incompetent for reasons within their own control;
 - c. is negligent or careless in the discharge of their duties;
 - d. engages in improper conduct as an employee of the ABC;
 - e. engages in improper conduct which brings, or is likely to bring, the ABC into disrepute;
 - f. fails to comply with, or contravenes, a term or condition of this Agreement;
 - g. deliberately provides at any time incorrect or misleading information which is relevant to their employment; and/or
 - h. exercises unlawful discrimination, patronage or favouritism in relation to employment matters within the ABC.

55.2 Process

- 55.2.1 Where an allegation of misconduct is made, the employee will be:
- a. advised in writing of the nature of the alleged misconduct;
 - b. advised that at any stage during these or subsequent proceedings they may choose to be accompanied or represented by a person of their choice;
 - c. advised in writing of the process to be undertaken by the ABC to determine whether the alleged misconduct is substantiated;
 - d. in the event that an investigation is required, the employee will be advised in writing that an independent investigator will be appointed by the ABC who will report their findings back to the relevant Delegate;
 - e. provided with a right of access to any material that is reasonably necessary for the employee to respond to the allegation, provided that:
 - i. the ABC, where appropriate, may de-identify or otherwise anonymise that material where the ABC has a reasonable concern about the potential victimisation of a witness or complainant, provided that the employee (and their representative) has access to sufficient material to understand and respond to the allegation; and
 - ii. the ABC may require the employee to keep confidential the material provided, other than to seek advice from their representative;
 - f. given an opportunity to respond and/or explain their actions or inactions and any mitigating factors they seek to have taken into consideration, provided that explanation is provided in a timely manner.
- 55.2.2 Where the ABC forms the view that the alleged misconduct is likely to constitute Serious Misconduct, the ABC will advise the employee of that view at the earliest opportunity.

55.3 Suspension

- 55.3.1 Where the nature or seriousness of the alleged misconduct is such that it is reasonable to suspend the employee from duty, the ABC may suspend the employee with or without pay while an investigation is conducted.
- 55.3.2 The ABC will only suspend the employee without pay under subclause 55.3 if the employee agrees.

- 55.3.3 An employee on suspension either with or without pay will not attend their place of work unless authorised by the ABC.
- 55.3.4 The ABC may grant an employee access to accrued annual and/or long service leave during a period of unpaid suspension.
- 55.3.5 Where an investigation concludes that misconduct is not substantiated, or the nature of the misconduct does not warrant the withholding of pay during the period of suspension, the employee will be reimbursed for ordinary pay withheld during the suspension and any paid leave taken by the employee during the suspension will be restored.

55.4 Disciplinary Action

- 55.4.1 Where an allegation of misconduct is substantiated, the ABC may impose one or more of any of the following forms of disciplinary action, as appropriate to the nature and seriousness of the misconduct:
- a. reprimand the employee;
 - b. issue a written warning to the employee;
- and in the case of Serious Misconduct;
- c. transfer the employee to another position at an equal or lower salary;
 - d. withhold the employee's salary for part or all of the period of suspension;
 - e. reduce the employee's salary within the band;
 - f. dismiss the employee with notice or payment in lieu in accordance with the relevant provisions of clause 57 - Termination of Employment; or
 - g. dismiss the employee without notice in accordance with subclause 57.1.1a.
- 55.4.2 The ABC may, in its discretion, determine that although the misconduct is substantiated, no disciplinary action should be taken, but the employee will be counselled and the counselling recorded on the employee's file.
- 55.4.3 The ABC will not act under subclause 55.4.1d absent the employee's agreement – that is, to withhold the employee's pay for part or all of the period of suspension in the case of Serious Misconduct.

55.5 Written Warnings

- 55.5.1 Where a written warning is issued, a copy will be placed on the employee's personnel file and a copy given to the employee.
- 55.5.2 The warning will identify any corrective action to be taken, and that failure to comply with the corrective action may lead to further disciplinary action, including dismissal.

55.6 Summary Dismissal

- 55.6.1 Nothing in this Agreement limits or affects in any way the ABC's right to dismiss an employee summarily if the employee has committed Serious Misconduct.

56. Medical Incapacity & Rehabilitation

56.1 Case Management

- 56.1.1 Where an employee is, or is likely to be, incapable of performing their job for an extended period of time due to medical reasons the ABC will manage the case in accordance with medical advice to assist with the employee's rehabilitation.
- 56.1.2 For the purposes of this clause, the ABC may direct an employee to attend a medical assessment by an independent medical practitioner.
- 56.1.3 The ABC acknowledges that the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988 (Cth) (SRC Act) applies in relation to compensable work related injuries and prevails over clause 56 to the extent of any inconsistency with the SRC Act.

56.2 Rehabilitation

- 56.2.1 Where a medical assessment indicates that an employee will not be able to return to their full work capacity within a reasonable timeframe, the ABC may review the continued employment of the employee and take such action as is appropriate.
- 56.2.2 Appropriate action will depend on the circumstances of the individual case but may include:
- a. implementing a rehabilitation plan;
 - b. considering whether the employee could perform the inherent requirements of their pre-injury role with reasonable adjustment or accommodation of the employee's medical condition, taking into account the ABC's operational requirements;
 - c. where medical advice indicates that the employee is unlikely to be able to perform the inherent requirements of their pre-injury role with reasonable adjustment or accommodation of the employee's medical condition, taking into account the ABC's operational requirements, the ABC may declare the employee's substantive position vacant and:
 - i. seek to redeploy the employee to suitable duties;
 - ii. transfer the employee to another suitable role, including one at a lower salary band where medical advice indicates the proposed duties are suitable;
 - iii. providing training and development for a reasonable period of time to assist with a career change; or
 - iv. terminate the employment, provided the ABC complies with subclause 56.3.3.
- 56.2.3 An employee will adhere to a rehabilitation plan implemented by the ABC in accordance with medical advice.
- 56.2.4 Where an employee refuses to adhere to a rehabilitation plan, an independent medical opinion will be sought to assess the suitability of the plan.

56.3 Salary Reduction & Termination

- 56.3.1 Should the rehabilitation of an employee with a non-worker's compensation injury fail to result in either a return to their pre-injury role or redeployment to a suitable permanent role within 12 months of their date of injury the ABC may direct the employee to perform duties the employee has been assessed as being fit to perform and the ABC may reduce the employee's salary to correspond with the level of those duties, provided that:
- a. where necessary, independent medical advice will be sought to assess the level at which the employee is fit to work; and
 - b. where 12 months after the date of injury the employee continues to have a personal/carers leave entitlement, they may utilise this entitlement to maintain their salary at the level of their pre-injury normal weekly earnings until such time as their personal/carers leave is exhausted.
- 56.3.2 Failure to adhere to a rehabilitation plan that has been assessed as being suitable constitutes misconduct under subclause 55.1.1a and 55.1.1f and the ABC may implement appropriate disciplinary action, including giving notice of termination of employment.
- 56.3.3 The ABC will not proceed with termination on medical grounds within a period of 52 weeks from the date of injury without the employee's agreement or unless the termination is in accordance with subclause 56.3.2 and the provisions of the relevant superannuation legislation.

57. Termination of Employment

57.1 Basis for Termination

- 57.1.1 Subject to 57.2.2, the ABC may terminate an employee's employment on the following basis:
- a. Summarily, if the employee is guilty of Serious Misconduct.
 - b. On notice (or the provision of payment in lieu of notice), including on the following grounds:
 - i. Redundancy (in accordance with clause 54)
 - ii. Medical incapacity (in accordance with clause 56)

- iii. Unsatisfactory performance (in accordance with clause 23)
 - iv. Misconduct (in accordance with clause 55)
 - v. Abandonment of employment.
- c. On notice (or the provision of payment in lieu of notice) during Probation.

57.2 Notice on Termination

- 57.2.1 If the ABC terminates an employee's employment on notice (or the provision of payment in lieu of notice), then the required notice or payment in lieu, other than for redundancy, must be calculated in accordance with the following:

Period of Continuous Service	Period of Notice
For Ongoing, Nominated Long Term Specified Task Employment, Nominated Long Fixed Term employees up to and including six months	One week
For trainees or cadets more than six months	Two weeks
Up to and including 12 months	Two weeks
Over 12 months and under five years	Four weeks
Five years and over	Six weeks
For Specified Task, Run of Show or Fixed Term Employment within Probation	Four weeks

- 57.2.2 Subclause 57.1.1b does not apply to Fixed Term, Run of Show or Specified Task Employees, except for employees engaged on Nominated Long Term Specified Task Employment, Nominated Long Fixed Term Employment or Phased Retirement Employment. For the avoidance of doubt, this subclause does not limit termination for Serious Misconduct under subclause 57.1.1a or termination during Probation under subclause 57.1.1c where permitted by subclause 14.10.

- 57.2.3 Subclauses 57.1.1 and 57.2.1 will not apply in the case of a Casual Employee whose employment ceases when the period for which they were employed has ended.

57.3 Payment on Termination

- 57.3.1 Any final payment that is required to be made by the ABC on the termination of an employee's employment under subclause 57.1.1 will be processed on the next regular payday after termination.

58. Resignation or Retirement

- 58.1.1 Unless otherwise agreed between the ABC and the employee, an employee must give the ABC notice of resignation or retirement as follows:

Period of Continuous Service	Period of Notice
Less than three years	Two weeks
Three years, but less than five years	Three weeks
Five years and over	Four weeks

- 58.1.2 If an employee fails to give the required notice of resignation or retirement in full or in part without the ABC's consent, the employee may specifically authorise the ABC to deduct from monies due an amount equal to the gross Minimum Rate of Pay for the notice not worked or not given. Any outstanding balance becomes a debt due to the ABC. Deductions pursuant to this clause are from the employee's gross salary before tax (that is, a week's notice not worked, or not given, will be fully satisfied by the deduction of an amount equal to one week's salary being withheld by the ABC before tax is applied). Where an employee declines to authorise such a deduction, either in full or in part, the remaining amount outstanding equal to the gross ordinary rate of pay for the notice not worked or not given becomes a debt due to the ABC.

Part O Settlement of Grievances and Disputes

59. Personal Grievance Resolution

- 59.1.1 Personal grievances between employees, or between an employee and their manager, will be dealt with in a manner that:
- a. promotes timely resolution in the workplace; and
 - b. is fair and equitable, having regard to natural justice, good conscience and the merits of the case.
- 59.1.2 Consistent with these principles, personal grievances will be dealt with in accordance with the ABC Grievance Resolution Guidelines, as amended from time to time.

60. Dispute Resolution

60.1 General

- 60.1.1 Subject to the exceptions in subclause 60.2, if a dispute relates to:
- a. a matter arising under this Agreement;
 - b. the NES;
 - c. the application of the Recruitment and Selection Guidelines as in place from time to time; or
 - d. the application of the Performance Management Guidelines as in place from time to time,
- this clause sets out procedures to settle the dispute.
- 60.1.2 An employee who is a party to the dispute may appoint a representative for the purpose of the procedures in this clause.
- 60.1.3 In the first instance, the parties to the dispute must try to resolve the dispute at the workplace level as follows:
- a. Step 1: Workplace Level Resolution

The employee(s), or their representative, must first raise the issue directly with their local manager by clearly indicating that a dispute is being raised under this Agreement. The employee(s) concerned, and the relevant manager must meet, either in person or virtually, to discuss the concerns and attempt to resolve the matter promptly and informally at the workplace level. The employee(s) may be accompanied by a union representative.
 - b. Step 2: Escalation to Chief People Officer (CPO)

If the dispute remains unresolved after Step 1, the employee(s), or their representative, must submit a written escalation to the CPO. The escalation must outline the nature of the dispute, any relevant background information and outline any previous efforts to resolve the issue. Within 10 business days of receiving the submission, the CPO (or their Delegate) will hold a meeting, either in person or virtually, with the employee(s) concerned and their representatives (if any) to address the outstanding issues and seek a final resolution of the matter.
- 60.1.4 If discussions at the workplace level do not resolve the dispute, and all appropriate steps under subclause 60.1.3 have been completed, a party to the dispute may refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission.
- 60.1.5 The Fair Work Commission may deal with the dispute in two stages:
- a. the Fair Work Commission will first attempt to resolve the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, expressing an opinion or making a recommendation; and
 - b. if the Fair Work Commission is unable to resolve the dispute at the first stage, the Fair Work Commission may then:
 - i. arbitrate the dispute; and
 - ii. make a determination that is binding on the parties.

- 60.1.6 While the parties are trying to resolve the dispute using the procedures in this clause, an employee must continue to perform their work as they would normally unless they have a reasonable concern about an imminent risk to their health and safety. In which case, the employee must comply with a direction given by the ABC to perform other available work at the same workplace, or at another workplace, unless:
- a. the work is not safe; or
 - b. applicable work health and safety legislation would not permit the work to be performed; or
 - c. the work is not appropriate for the employee to perform; or
 - d. there are other reasonable grounds for the employee to refuse to comply with the direction.
- 60.1.7 The parties to the dispute agree to be bound by a decision of the Fair Work Commission in accordance with this term, provided that a party to the dispute may appeal the decision to a Full Bench of the Fair Work Commission in accordance with section 604 of the FW Act.
- 60.1.8 The parties agree before commencing a claim relating to a breach of the FW Act in the Federal Court of Australia, or any other court or tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the parties must complete the steps outlined in subclause 60.1.3, except where the claim involves a time-sensitive application and delay would materially prejudice the applicant's rights or interests. In such instances, the parties must still comply with the steps outlined in subclause 60.1.3 prior to having the matter progress further in any legal proceedings.

60.2 Exceptions to subclause 60.1

- 60.2.1 The disputes procedure in subclause 60.1 does not apply to a dispute about subsection 65A(5) or 76A(4) of the FW Act.
- 60.2.2 The disputes procedure in subclause 60.1 does not apply to disputes regarding:
- a. a salary outcome or rating of an Appraisal, or
 - b. an employee who believes that they have regularly been performing, and were required to perform, tasks beyond the level specified in their position description and Job Plan (if applicable).
- These disputes will be dealt with in accordance with subclause 60.4 Reconsideration and Appeal Against an Appraisal Decision.
- 60.2.3 The disputes procedure in subclause 60.1 does not apply to a dispute regarding a Selection Decision under clause 13. These disputes will be dealt with in accordance with subclause 60.3 – Right of Appeal Against a Selection Decision. However, a party to the dispute may still refer the matter to the Fair Work Commission for conciliation only, independently of subclause 60.3.

60.3 Right of Appeal Against a Selection Decision

- 60.3.1 Subclauses 60.1.1 to 60.1.3 apply to a dispute regarding a Selection Decision. Once those steps have been followed, the provisions below will apply.
- 60.3.2 An ABC employee, who is an applicant for a vacancy which has been the subject of a Selection Panel assessment, may apply to the Fair Work Commission for it to deal with a dispute which is an appeal against a Selection Decision where that decision is based on any alleged:
- a. non-observance of due process;
 - b. unlawful discrimination;
 - c. patronage or favouritism by a Selection Panel.
- 60.3.3 An application by an ABC employee must be in the form prescribed by the FW Act.
- 60.3.4 The application must be lodged within seven days after the date of notification to an employee that they have been unsuccessful in their application for the position in question.
- 60.3.5 There is no right of appeal against a:
- a. Selection Decision based on merit;
 - b. Selection Decision to a position involving a joint venture;
 - c. Selection Decision involving an external appointment; or

- d. Selection Decision in respect of a vacancy where the vacancy duration is 12 months or less.
- 60.3.6 On receipt of an application for a dispute resolution process under this clause, the Fair Work Commission will establish a Selection Committee Assessment Panel. The Panel will be comprised of three people:
- a. an independent chairperson nominated by the Fair Work Commission;
 - b. a person nominated by the ABC; and
 - c. the appellant's nominee who must be from outside the appellant's work area.
- If the appellant does not appoint to the Selection Committee Assessment Panel a nominee from outside their work area within 14 days, then the ABC may appoint a person from outside the appellant's work area.
- 60.3.7 The Panel can only consider the due process of the selection in accordance with clause 13 and this subclause 60.3 and not the question of merit. The Panel will determine the matter within 21 days of receiving the appeal and will provide reasons for their decision in writing. The burden of proof will rest with the appellant.
- 60.3.8 Where the Panel determines that due process was not observed and that the non-observance had an adverse or detrimental impact on the selection process, the appeal will be upheld and the Selection Decision declared void. If the vacancy is to be filled, the ABC will convene a new selection committee and observe due process. The ABC will retain the right to appoint the employee of its choice in an acting capacity, pending the determination of the appeal.
- 60.3.9 Where the appeal has been disallowed, the selection is automatically confirmed.
- 60.3.10 The provisions of subclause 60.1.6 will apply during the process under this subclause 60.3.
- 60.4 Reconsideration and Appeal Against an Appraisal Decision
- 60.4.1 Notwithstanding employees' right of appeal under the provisions of this subclause, it is expected that an employee will raise any matter of concern regarding their Job Plan (if applicable) or performance feedback as soon as it arises during the cycle.
- 60.4.2 If an employee disagrees with their Appraisal rating, or an employee in Bands 1 - 8 disagrees with the salary outcome of their Appraisal or believes both that they have been regularly performing and were required to perform tasks beyond the level specified in their position description and Job Plan (if applicable), (Appraisal Concerns), in the first instance the employee should raise this with their Manager/Supervisor for discussion in an effort to resolve their concerns.
- 60.4.3 If the employee's discussions with their Manager/Supervisor do not resolve the Appraisal Concerns, the employee may, within 30 days of receiving email confirmation that the Appraisal outcome is available for review, write to People & Culture to request a reconsideration of the Appraisal outcome. If extenuating circumstances can be demonstrated, management will not unreasonably refuse to extend the 30 day deadline for reconsideration.
- 60.4.4 In requesting a reconsideration of the Appraisal Outcome, the employee will state the reasons they consider the Appraisal rating or Job Plan (if applicable) was unfair or failed to take into account relevant factors. The employee may provide material in support of the request for reconsideration, including information from two referees.
- 60.4.5 People & Culture will consider all relevant information, including, without limitation, material provided by the employee in support of the request for reconsideration and information based on People & Culture's own enquiries, and make a recommendation to the Director of the relevant ABC Division, or their Delegate, as to whether the original Appraisal outcome should be upheld or changed.
- 60.4.6 The Director, or their Delegate, will advise the employee of the People & Culture recommendation within 30 days of their receipt of the recommendation.
- 60.4.7 The Director, or their Delegate, will either reject or accept the People & Culture recommendation (Director's Decision) within 30 days and advise the employee of their decision. If People & Culture recommend that the original Appraisal outcome should be changed, and the Director or Delegate rejects the recommendation, the Director or Delegate will provide the employee with a written statement which clearly outlines the reasons for rejecting the People & Culture recommendation within 30 days of their receipt of the recommendation.

- 60.4.8 If the employee is dissatisfied with the Director's Decision, the employee can, within 30 days of being advised of the outcome, refer the Director's Decision made under subclause 60.4.7 to the Fair Work Commission for binding recommendation if the employee can establish that the Director or Delegate in making the decision:
- a. overlooked or breached a provision of this Agreement, or
 - b. allowed extraneous or irrelevant matters to guide their decision; or
 - c. mistook the facts; or
 - d. failed to take into account a material consideration,
- provided that the employee must do so within 120 calendar days after the date the Director or Delegate advises the employee of their decision under subclause 60.4.7
- 60.4.9 In considering whether a Director or Delegate has made an error in their decision in accordance with subclause 60.4.7, the Fair Work Commission may:
- a. only have regard to the material that was before the Director or Delegate at the time of making the decision or recommendation;
 - b. make such determination as necessary to correct any established error; and
 - c. not substitute its own decision for that of the Director or Delegate.
- 60.4.10 The provisions of subclause 60.1.6 will apply during the process under this subclause 60.4.

Part P Workplace Delegate Rights

Schedule D Meal Allowance Transition and Compensation Provisions

1. Definitions

For the purpose of this Schedule:

Relevant Date means 5 November 2013, the commencement date of the ABC Enterprise Agreement 2013 – 2016 (2013 EA).

Eligible Employee means an employee who satisfies both of the following conditions:

- (a) they were employed by the ABC, and covered by the 2013 EA, as at the Relevant Date; and
- (b) they were paid a meal allowance in the 12 months prior to the Commencement Date.

Meal Allowance Changes means:

the changes to meal allowance arrangements implemented in the 2013 EA, being:

- (a) the change in subclause 29.1.1(b) from 12 noon to 11 am;
- (b) the reduction of the meal allowance from $27.10 to $20.

Potential Lost Meal Allowance means the gross amount by which an employee's gross meal allowance payments would have been reduced in Year 1 if the Meal Allowance Changes had been made in Year 1.

Year 1 means the 12 month period starting on the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2013 and Year 2 means the 12 month period starting on the first full pay period on or after 1 July 2014.

2. Special Allowance

- (a) At the end of Year 1, the ABC calculated the Potential Lost Meal Allowance for each Eligible Employee.
- (b) If the Potential Lost Meal Allowance for the Eligible Employee exceeded $150 for Year 1, the employee became and remains entitled to be paid an ongoing special allowance from the commencement of Year 2 unless and until the employee changed roles or ceased working the shifts which would have otherwise entitled them to the Meal Allowance under the 2013 EA.
- (c) The ongoing special allowance is the Potential Lost Meal Allowance less $150 and will be pro-rated and paid in each fortnightly pay period, while the employee remains entitled to receive it. Example: If an employee's Potential Lost Meal Allowance is $1000 for Year 1, the employee will receive an ongoing special allowance of $32.59 each fortnight from the start of Year 2 while they remain eligible for the allowance (ie. (1000-150) x12/313)).
- (d) The ongoing special allowance is not payable when an employee is absent on;
 - i. unpaid leave;
 - ii. long service leave; or
 - iii. a period of personal/carers leave which exceeds one month per annum.

3. Buyouts (during and beyond the nominal term of the Agreement)

For those employees who have a buyout as at the Relevant Date but would otherwise have been an Eligible Employee, the following applies:

- (a) the ABC will not reduce that employee's buyout arrangement on account of the Meal Allowance Changes; and
- (b) if that employee's buyout is terminated for any reason, then clause 2 will apply to them from the date the buyout is terminated (with the Potential Lost Meal Allowance still being calculated by reference to Year 1).

Schedule E Darwin Airfares

1. Schedule A employees who commence employment with the ABC in Darwin on or after 1 July 1998 and Schedule B employees who commence employment with the ABC in Darwin on or after 4 July 2000 are not eligible for Isolated Locality Airfares under the ABC Isolated Locality Assistance Policy.
2. Employees employed by the ABC as at 30 June 1998 (Schedule A) or 3 July 2000 (Schedule B) shall continue to be eligible for Isolated Locality Airfares in the terms set out in 3 below while they remain employed by the ABC in Darwin. This entitlement will cease on the termination of their employment or their transfer to a permanent position in another State. Provided that where an employee accepted the buyout of their entitlement offered to them on 18 June 1998 their entitlement ceased from the date of acceptance.
3. Eligible employees may take their entitlement to Isolated Locality Airfares as either:
 - (a) An airfare for themselves and each of their dependents up to the value of a full economy return airfare to Adelaide. This airfare is to be booked through the ABC's account with its travel provider and will be paid directly by the ABC. There is no cash component to this.
 - (b) A taxable lump sum payment equal to the cash value of a full economy return airfare to Adelaide for them and their dependants plus a 35% loading. This lump sum is fully taxable and will be paid through the ABC payroll system.
 - (c) A Private Vehicle Allowance as per the rate in Schedule C where the employee chooses to travel by their motor vehicle on leave. Provided that the maximum paid shall be no more than the cost of a full economy return airfare to Adelaide for them and their dependants. Employees who take this option must provide full documentation on their return to prove that they undertook the journey. Such proof would be receipts for accommodation and petrol between Darwin and their destination and return.
4. Alice Springs

Employees in Alice Springs will continue to receive Isolated Locality Airfares in accordance with subclause 33.2.1 of the Agreement. However, employees in Alice Springs may choose, should they wish, to take this entitlement as a taxable lump sum payment equal to the cash value of a full economy return airfare from Alice Springs to Adelaide for them and their dependents plus a 35% loading paid through the ABC payroll system.

Schedule F Employees Eligible for a Supported Wage

This schedule details the conditions which will apply to employees who because of the effects of a disability are eligible for a supported wage under the terms of this Agreement.

Definitions:

Supported Wage System means the Commonwealth Government system to promote employment for people who cannot work at full award wages because of a disability, as documented in the Supported Wage System: Guidelines and Assessment Process, as varied or replaced from time to time.

Accredited Assessor means a person accredited by the managing unit established by the Commonwealth under the Supported Wage System to perform assessments of an individual's productive capacity within the Supported Wage System.

Disability Support Pension means the Commonwealth pension scheme to provide income security for persons with a disability as provided for under the Social Security Act 1991, as amended from time to time, or any successor to that scheme.

Assessment instrument means the form provided for under the Supported Wage System that records the assessment of the productive capacity of the person to be employed under the Supported Wage System.

Eligibility Criteria

This schedule applies to those employees who meet the impairment criteria test for a Disability Support Pension and are unable to perform the range of duties to the competence level required within the class of work for which the employee is engaged under this Agreement because of the effects of a disability on their productive capacity.

The clause does not apply to any existing employee who has a claim against the employer which is subject to the provision of workers' compensation legislation or any provision of this Agreement relating to the rehabilitation of employees who are injured in the course of their employment.

Supported Wage Rates

Employees to whom this schedule applies shall be paid the applicable percentage of the Minimum Rate of Pay prescribed by this Agreement for the class of work which the person is performing according to the following schedule:

Assessed Capacity	% of Prescribed Agreement Rate
10%	10%*
20%	20%
30%	30%
40%	40%
50%	50%
60%	60%
70%	70%
80%	80%
90%	90%

Provided that the minimum amount payable shall be not less than the minimum amount that the ABC is required by law to pay to the employee.

 Where a person's assessed capacity is 10%, they shall receive a high degree of assistance and support.*

Assessment of Capacity

For the purpose of establishing the percentage of the rate to be paid to an employee under this Agreement, the productive capacity of the employee will be assessed in accordance with the Supported Wage System and documented in an assessment instrument, by an accredited assessor.

Review of Assessment

The assessment of the applicable percentage should be subject to annual review or earlier on the basis of a reasonable request for such a review. The process of review shall be in accordance with the procedures for assessing capacity under the Supported Wage System.

Other Terms and Conditions of Employment

Where an assessment has been made, the applicable percentage shall apply to the wage rate only. Employees covered by the provisions of the clause will be entitled to the same terms and conditions of employment as all other workers covered by this Agreement paid on a pro rata basis.

Trial Period

In order for an adequate assessment of the employee's capacity to be made the ABC may employ a person under the provisions of this clause for a trial period not exceeding 12 weeks, except that in some cases additional work adjustment time (not exceeding 4 weeks) may be needed.

During that trial period the assessment of capacity shall be undertaken and the proposed wage rate for a continuing employment relationship shall be determined.

The minimum amount payable to the employee during the trial period shall be no less than the minimum amount that the ABC is required by law to pay to the employee.

Schedule G Informal Working Arrangement and Working From Home/Remotely

1. Employees may request informal flexible working arrangements. Informal flexible working arrangements include but are not limited to one-off, short-term or other arrangements for circumstances that are not permanent (Informal Arrangements). An Informal Arrangement may include working from home or working remotely (such as from a location other than the Employee's home).
2. Employees should discuss any request for Informal Arrangements with their manager and provide as much notice as possible for the request.
3. The ABC should consider Informal Arrangements requests on a case-by-case basis having regard to the employee's circumstances and reasonable business grounds and will support requests where appropriate.
4. The following matters are relevant when considering a request for an Informal Arrangement, and the reasonable business grounds, including, but not limited to:
 - 4.1. any operational impacts or additional costs to the ABC resulting from the Informal Arrangement;
 - 4.2. there is no capacity to change the working arrangements of other employees to accommodate the new Informal Arrangement requested;
 - 4.3. it would be impractical to change the working arrangements of other employees, or to recruit new employees, to accommodate the new Informal Arrangement requested;
 - 4.4. the Informal Arrangement requested would likely result in a significant loss in efficiency or productivity;

5. An employee working from home is covered by the same employment conditions as an employee working at an office site under this Agreement.
6. Employees may be required to attend training, meetings and other work-related matters in person at an ABC office nearest to their home or remote work location. Any travel to or from an ABC worksite will be at an employee's cost and own time.
7. The ABC will provide employees with guidance on working from home safely and the employee must comply with all workplace health and safety directions and guidance whilst working from home or remotely.
8. Employees will not be required by the ABC to work from home unless it is lawful and reasonable to do so. This may include where circumstances prevent attendance at an office during a pandemic or natural disaster. In these situations, the ABC will consider the circumstances of the employees and options to achieve work outcomes safely.
9. There is no obligation on the ABC to approve working from home or remote working requests for locations outside of Australia.

Schedule H Workplace delegates rights

As set out in clause 61.1, the following terms are extracted from clause 7A in the ABC Award. The clause numbering is as appears in the ABC Award.

7A. Workplace delegates rights

7A.1 Clause 7A provides for the exercise of the rights of workplace delegates set out in section 350C of the FW Act.

NOTE: Under section 350C(4) of the FW Act, the employer is taken to have afforded a workplace delegate the rights mentioned in section 350C(3) if the employer has complied with clause 7A.

7A.2 In clause 7A

- (a) employer means the employer of the workplace delegate
- (b) delegate's organisation means the employee organisation in accordance with the rules of which the workplace delegate was appointed or elected;
- (c) eligible workers means members and persons eligible to be members of the workplace delegate's organisation who work in a particular enterprise.

7A.3 Before exercising entitlements under clause 7A, a workplace delegate must give the employer written notice of their appointment or election as a workplace delegate. If requested, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their appointment or election.

7A.4 An employee who ceases to be a workplace delegate must give written notice to the employer within 14 days.

7A.5 Right of representation

A workplace delegate may represent the industrial interests of eligible workers who wish to be represented by the workplace delegate in matters including:

- (a) consultation about major workplace change;
- (b) consultation about changes to rosters or hours of work;
- (c) resolution of disputes;
- (d) disciplinary processes;
- (e) enterprise bargaining where the workplace delegate has been appointed as a bargaining representative under section 176 of the FW Act or is assisting the delegate's organisation with enterprise bargaining; and

7A.6 Entitlement to reasonable communication

- (b) A workplace delegate may communicate with eligible workers during working hours or work breaks, or before or after work.

7A.7 Entitlement to reasonable access to the workplace and workplace facilities

 - (i) a room or area to hold discussions that is fit for purpose, private and accessible by the workplace delegate and eligible workers;
 - (ii) a physical or electronic noticeboard;
 - (iii) electronic means of communication ordinarily used in the workplace by the employer to communicate with eligible workers and by eligible workers to communicate with each other, including access to Wi-Fi;
 - (iv) a lockable filing cabinet or other secure document storage area; and
 - (v) office facilities and equipment including printers, scanners and photocopiers.
- (b) The employer is not required to provide access to or use of a workplace facility under clause 7A.7(a) if:
 - (i) the workplace does not have the facility;
 - (ii) due to operational requirements, it is impractical to provide access to or use of the facility at the time or in the manner it is sought; or
 - (iii) the employer does not have access to the facility at the enterprise and is unable to obtain access after taking reasonable steps.

7A.8 Entitlement to reasonable access to training

Unless the employer is a small business employer, the employer must provide a workplace delegate with access to up to 5 days of paid time during normal working hours for initial training and at least one day each subsequent year, to attend training related to representation of the industrial interests of eligible workers, subject to the following conditions:

- (a) In each year commencing 1 July, the employer is not required to provide access to paid time for training to more than one workplace delegate per 50 eligible workers.
- (b) The number of eligible workers will be determined on the day a delegate requests paid time to attend training, as the number of eligible workers who are:
 - (i) full-time or part-time employees; or
 - (ii) regular casual employees.
- (c) Payment for a day of paid time during normal working hours is payment of the amount the workplace delegate would have been paid for the hours the workplace delegate would have been rostered or required to work on that day if the delegate had not been absent from work to attend the training.
- (d) The workplace delegate must give the employer not less than 5 weeks' notice (unless the employer and delegate agree to a shorter period of notice) of the dates, subject matter, the daily start and finish times of the training, and the name of the training provider.
- (e) If requested by the employer, the workplace delegate must provide the employer with an outline of the training content.
- (f) The employer must advise the workplace delegate not less than 2 weeks from the day on which the training is scheduled to commence, whether the workplace delegate's access to paid time during normal working hours to attend the training has been approved. Such approval must not be unreasonably withheld.
- (g) The workplace delegate must, within 7 days after the day on which the training ends, provide the employer with evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of their attendance at the training.

7A.9 Exercise of entitlements under clause 7A

- (a) A workplace delegate's entitlements under clause 7A are subject to the conditions that the workplace delegate must, when exercising those entitlements:
 - (i) comply with the reasonable policies and procedures of the employer, including reasonable codes of conduct and requirements in relation to occupational health and safety and acceptable use of ICT resources;
 - (ii) not hinder, obstruct or prevent eligible workers exercising their rights to freedom of association.
- (b) When exercising any entitlements under clause 7A, a workplace delegate must, other than in the reasonable exercise of those entitlements:
 - (i) comply with their duties and obligations as an employee; and
 - (ii) not hinder, obstruct or prevent the normal performance of work.
- (c) Clause 7A does not require the employer to provide a workplace delegate with access to electronic means of communication in a way that provides individual contact details for eligible workers.
- (d) Clause 7A does not require an eligible worker to be represented by a workplace delegate without the worker's agreement.

NOTE: Under section 350A of the FW Act, the employer must not:

- (a) unreasonably fail or refuse to deal with a workplace delegate; or
- (b) knowingly or recklessly make a false or misleading representation to a workplace delegate; or
- (c) unreasonably hinder, obstruct or prevent the exercise of the rights of a workplace delegate under the Act or clause 7A.

7A.10 Interaction with other clauses of this award

Other clauses of this award may give additional or more favourable entitlements to workplace delegates (however described). If an entitlement of a workplace delegate under another clause of this award is more favourable to the delegate than an entitlement under clause 7A, the entitlement under the other clause applies instead of the entitlement under clause 7A.

DECISION

Fair Work Act 2009
s.185—Enterprise agreement

Australian Broadcasting Corporation
(AG2026/1146)

ABC ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT 2025 - 2028

Broadcasting and recorded entertainment industry

COMMISSIONER PANOPOULOS

MELBOURNE, 5 AUGUST 2026

Application for approval of the ABC Enterprise Agreement 2025 - 2028

[1] Australian Broadcasting Corporation (the Employer) has made an application for approval of an enterprise agreement known as the ABC Enterprise Agreement 2025 - 2028 (the Agreement) pursuant to s.185 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (the FW Act). The Agreement is a single enterprise agreement.

[2] The Employer has provided written undertakings. A copy of the undertakings is attached in Annexure A. I am satisfied that the undertakings will not cause financial detriment to any employee covered by the Agreement and that the undertakings will not result in substantial changes to the Agreement. The undertakings are taken to be a term of the Agreement.

[3] Subject to the undertakings referred to above, and on the basis of the material contained in the application and accompanying declaration, I am satisfied that each of the requirements of sections 186, 187, 188 and 190, as are relevant to this application for approval, has been met.

[4] The pay rates contained in Schedule A contained typographical errors. The employer submitted a Form F1 to apply to have these figures corrected. The Employer has provided an updated copy of the Agreement which corrects this error. I am satisfied that this constituted an obvious error, defect, or irregularity and I will amend the Agreement accordingly pursuant to s.218A of the FW Act.

[5] The Media Entertainment and Arts Alliance (MEAA) and the Community and Public Sector Union (CPSU) being bargaining representatives for the Agreement, have each given notice under s.183 of the FW Act that they want the Agreement to cover them. In accordance with s.201(2) (and based on the declarations provided by these organisation), I note that the Agreement covers these organisations.

[6] The Agreement is approved and, in accordance with s.54, will operate from 12 August 2026. The nominal expiry date of the Agreement is 1 August 2028.
