Black Comedy is a fast paced, funny, entertaining, silly and sometimes serious look at Australia and Australian culture through the comedic prism of our first people. Acerbic, witty and altogether unapologetic, the show explores what it means to be black in contemporary Australia – and in doing so carves up sacred cows, dismantles stereotypes, and turns our modern culture inside out.

Written by and starring some of the funniest Indigenous performers in the country, Black Comedy 'goes blackly where no Blackfella has gone before'. In this third season, Black Comedy veterans Aaron Fa'Aoso and Nakkiah Lui are joined by new writer/performers David Woodhead, social commentator Nayuka Gorrie and Bush Tucker Bunjie Gabriel Willie. Rounding out the core performing team are actors Wayne Blair (Mystery Road, Redfern Now), Rarriwuy Hick (Cleverman, Wentworth), Dalara Williams and Maci-Grace Johnson. Included is a stellar line up of guest appearances including Black Comedy original cast member Elizabeth Wymarra, and other favourites including Leah Purcell, Adam Briggs, Matt Day, James Fraser, Jack Charles, Elaine Crombie, Lisa Hensley, Meyne Wyatt, Mia Wasikowska, Adam Goodes, Christine Anu, Jay Laga'aia, Daniel Amalm, Zoë Coombs Marr, Casey Donovan, Ian Roberts and Simon Hall.
