

The Elf Farm

A story to read together

1. It was breakfast time at the Little Castle. "Where's my egg?" asked King Thistle. "The Elves haven't delivered the food yet.," replied Nanny Plum. "Well just magic one up", said the king. "Real farm eggs taste better," said Nanny Plum. "I don't care," sighed the king. "Okay, Abracadabra, boilded egg!" chanted Nanny Plum.

2. "Delivery!" called Mr Elf from the Elf Truck. "I'm glad you're here. The King wants his egg," said Nanny Plum. "Aah! We forgot it," gasped Mr Elf.

3. "Welcome to the Elf Farm. Put on a hard hat on in case something falls on your head," said the Wise Old Elf. He then led the way to the carrot field.

Activities supplied by Redan Fun to Learn Magazines Little Kingdom © Astley Baker Davies/Entertainment One UK Limited 2008.